Mr. Hatch assumed the duties of Principal.

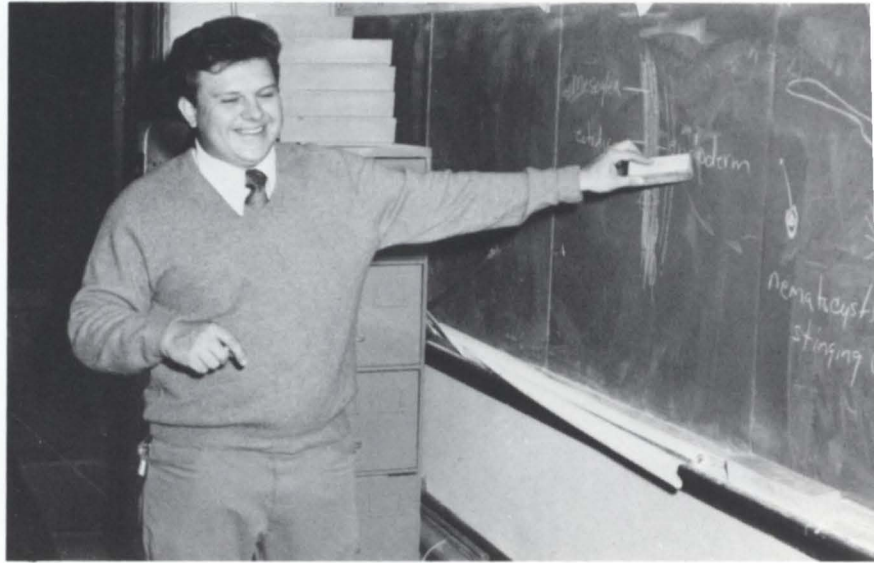

Phil Weber, Treasurer; Mrs. Ila Mae Clark, Vice Secretary; Delmer Feeken, and Dwayne Nelsen.

Math And Science

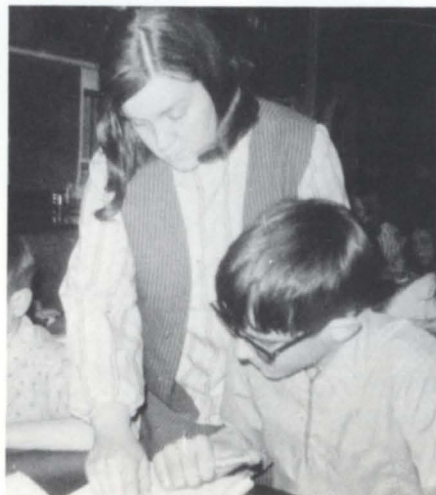

RICHARD RIMA

MERLIN FEIKERT

The junior high math and science classes were taught by Mrs. Bell, while Mr. Rima and Mr. Feikert were the senior high instructors. All of the science and some of the math sections on the high school level were individualized.

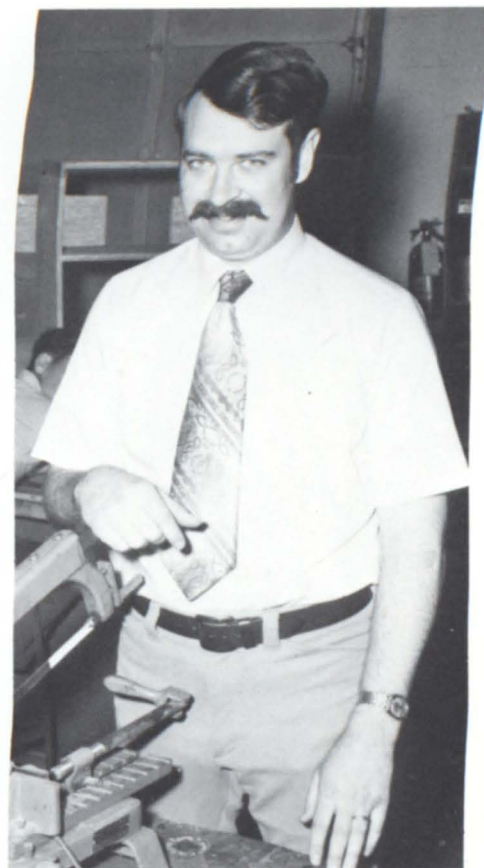

MRS. MARY JANE BELL

Home Ec. — Industrial Arts

MRS. LYNETTE JANSSEN

TOM ELDER

Mrs. Janssen joined the faculty in the fall as the home economics teacher. Her classes included studies in clothing, foods, management, child development and care, first aid, and marriage.

The industrial arts instructor was Mr. Elder. Leatherwork, art metal, drafting, woods, and engines were some of the areas covered by the students in the shop classes.

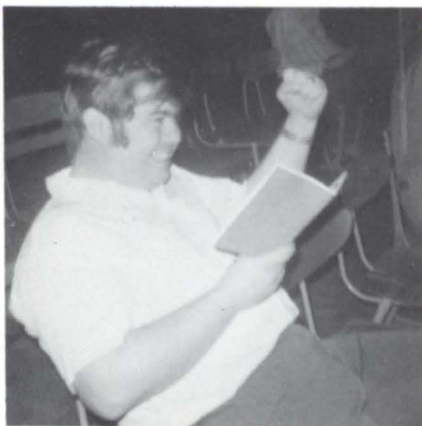

Social Studies

LARRY ANDERSON

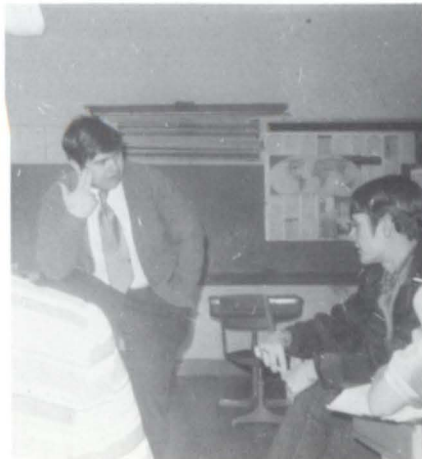

WARREN STORMS

The high school social studies were taught by a new instructor, Mr. Anderson. The classes included geography, world history, American history, and modern problems.

Mr. Storms taught the seventh grade social studies and the junior high and freshman English classes.

English And Business Education

MRS. JUDITH OTTMANN

MRS. LOIS WILLIAMS

Business English was added to the English curriculum this year by the instructor, Mrs. Ottmann. In addition, she taught American and world literature and speech. The English classes were also individualized.

The business subjects, taught by Mrs. Williams, included typewriting, shorthand, and clerical practice. An intensified lab which offered actual materials from offices was incorporated the second semester in clerical practice.

Music

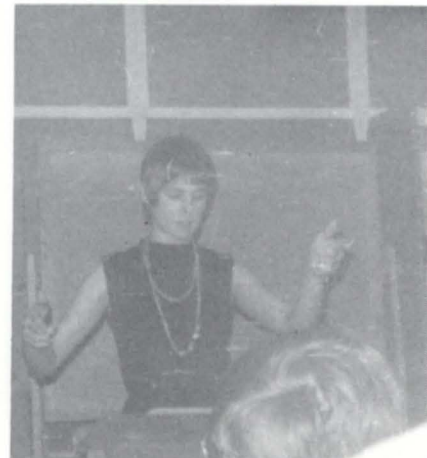

MRS. SHELLEY PORTER

MRS. JANICE ZOUBEK

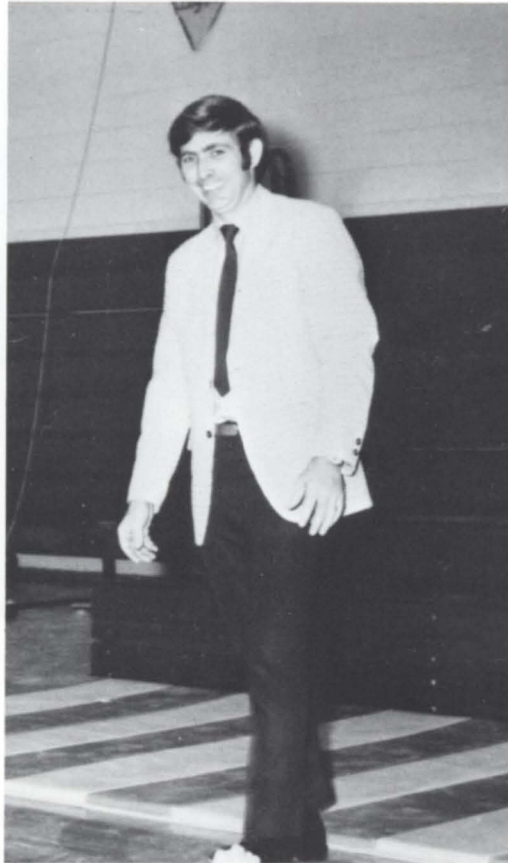

The vocal and instrumental areas of music were under the direction of Mrs. Porter and Mrs. Zoubek. Mrs. Porter organized a swing choir which performed at various functions during the year. The band marched at Czech Days and the State Fair.

Phys. Ed. And Driver Education

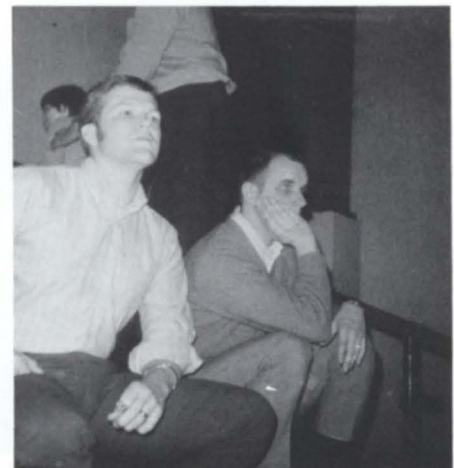

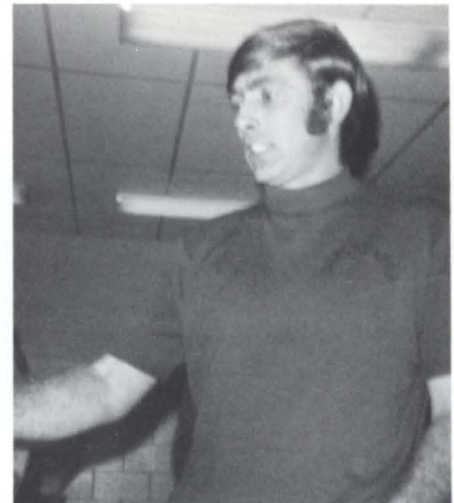

JACK GUGGENMOS

JACK OWEN

The elementary and the secondary boys physical education classes were taught by Mr. Guggenmos and Mr. Owen. All elementary grades had separate classes, while the high school students met in one section. Individual skills were emphasized as well as team activities.

Mr. Guggenmos also taught driver education and eighth grade social studies. Mr. Owen instructed a junior high health class and a high school sociology class.

Speech, Reading, And Art I

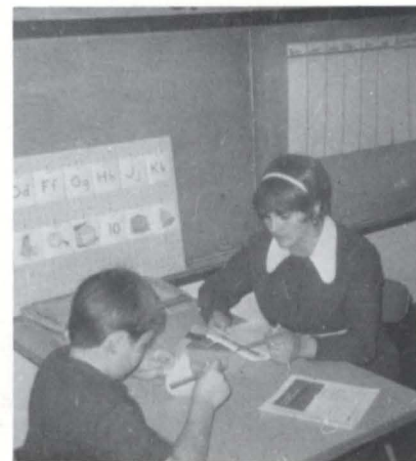

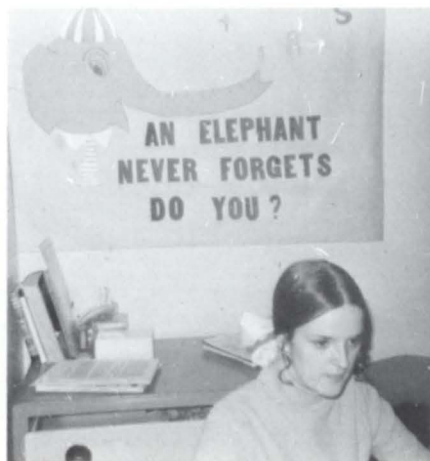

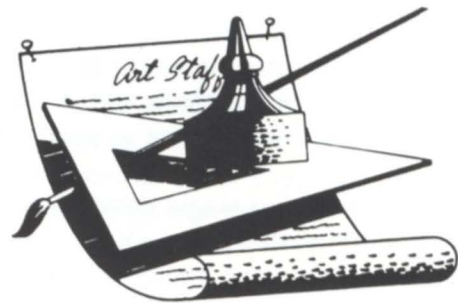

MRS. BARBARA BENTZINGER

Special Instructors

Mrs. Bentzinger, as speech therapist, and Mrs. Weilage, who was the remedial reading and art instructor, served the school as special instructors during the year.

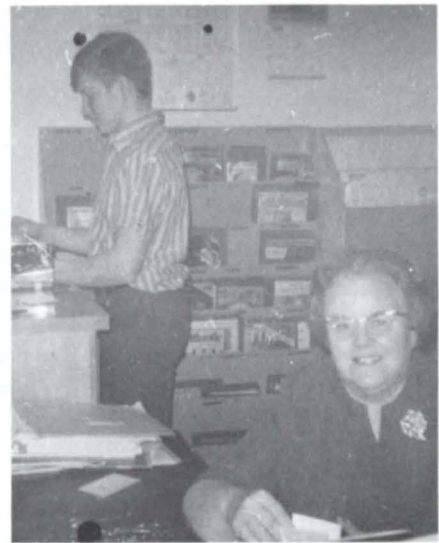

MRS. RITA WEILAGE

A spirited rally, a beautifully decorated gym, and the crowning of the royalty all highlighted the 1971-72 DHS Homecoming. During the halftime ceremony, the band created a festive atmosphere for the crowning of Vickie Schweitzer and John Slama as the new royalty. The Homecoming spirit fired up the entire Longhorn team, and they trounced the Davenport Tigers 20-0. After the victory, a dance was held in the gym with music provided by the "Joint Succession."

The declam and drama students earned a first place trophy by scoring 24 points at the Pioneer Conference Speech Contest held at Deshler. They also participated in the District Speech Contest at Marquette. Ron Wielage, Joyce Howe, and Brent Stehlik were selected to attend the Doane Invitational Speech Festival. The Speech Department was directed by Mrs. Ottmann.

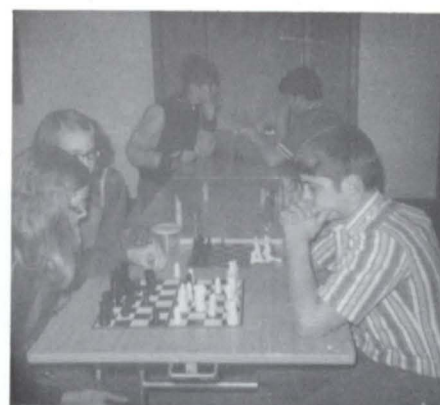

Chess Club Organized

Mr. Storms organized a Chess Club during 1971-72 which grew in size to a total of 28 members. Meetings were held at the school house and the members were able to learn and brush up on their chess.

A chess tournament was held in the latter part of the year. Tom Spinar won first place in this tourney. His name was engraved on a trophy which will be kept in the trophy case for future chess champion's names.

"Superstars" Honore

Ron Velder, Vickie Schweitzer, Doug Nelsen, Lu Jean Sysel, Queen Anne Kastanek, King Terry Young, Shon Kahle, Lee Eret.

"Superstars 71-72," this year's theme, was carried out in the colors of blue and gold. Anne Kastanek and Terry Young were crowned as royalty of the Athletic Banquet held on April 25.

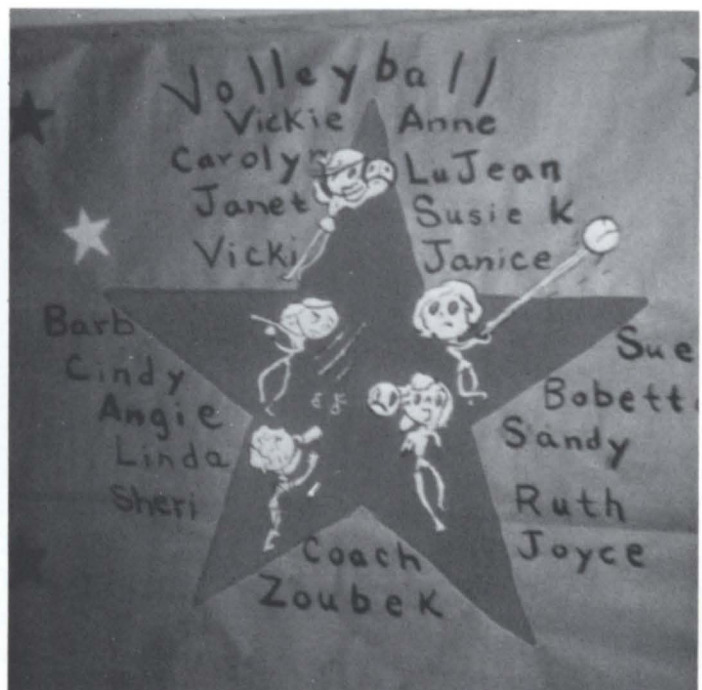

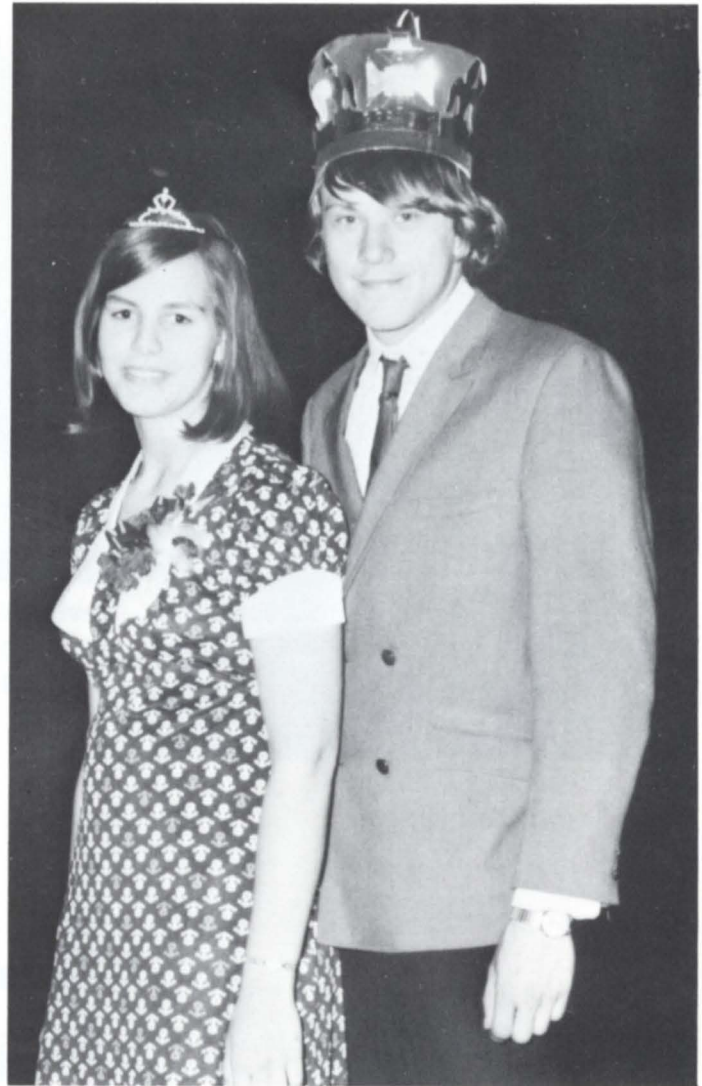

Following a delicious meal prepared by the WSCS, Mr. Bob Erickson of Doane College commented on his past coaching experiences. The coaches gave summaries of their past season happenings and named the lettermen.

A dance was held in the new gym following the banquet with music provided by "Hydra."

Marlene Matejka and Anne Kastanek were co-editors of the LONGHORN DEDICATION while Pat Kalkwarf was editor of THE LONGHORN. Susan Plachy Kalkwarf served as co-editor of the paper the first semester.

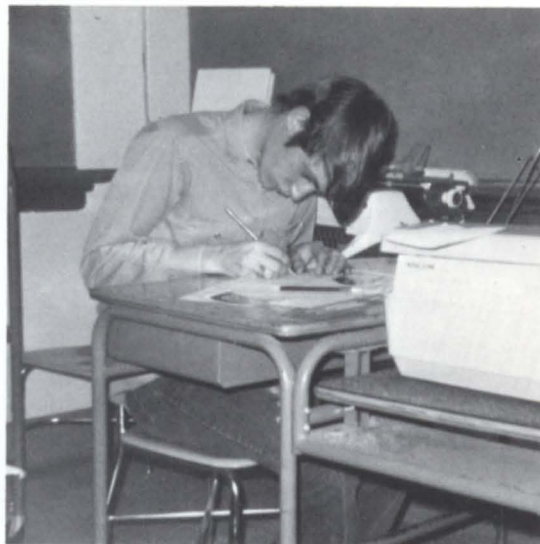

A Part Of School Life

The LONGHORN staff, under the editorship of Pat Kalkwarf, tried some new and different techniques in developing this edition. Among those new ideas were a change of layout, more script, "bled off" pictures, and development of a theme throughout the book.

The LONGHORN DEDICATION staff published a paper each month in order to keep news more current.

Issues were dedicated to the basketball and football teams and to Mrs. Williams.

Mixed Chorus had its first performance during the Christmas season at the annual music program. In April they went to District Music Contest and received a good rating. Their year was climaxed by a presentation of numbers at the Spring Program.

Girls Glee, which was included in Mixed Chorus, also performed during the year and were given an excellent rating at District Music Contest.

Accompanists for the music department were Nanc Pavlish and Marlene Matejka.

Swing Choir Was Formed

Swing Choir, a new group under the direction of Mrs. Porter, was one of the busiest groups in the school during 1971-72. Countless noon hours and evenings were spent practicing songs, learning choreographed routines, and also having a lot of fun. Two memorable early-morning bus rides took the group to the Peru Clinic and the Fremont Jazz Festival.

Swing Choir also performed at school concerts, open house, churches, a Crete reception, baccalaureate, and commencement. The group received an "excellent" rating at District Music Contest.

To keep the Swing Choir organized, tryouts were held at the end of the year to fill positions left by seniors.

"A Night At Monte Carlo"

The juniors, seniors, and faculty spent "A Night at Monte Carlo" on April 12. The banquet-prom was held at the Flying V in Utica. The juniors' props created the proper illusion and atmosphere to fit the theme.

They used red, black, and silver colors and the tables were decorated with dice.

The speaker for the evening was Mr. Larry Ribble.

Following the banquet, "Freedom Road" provided music for a dance.

The 1971 football team produced the first Conference championship since 1959 and the first Pioneer title since Dorchester joined the Conference three years ago. The squad was the third undefeated team in Dorchester's history.

The Longhorns averaged 27 points per game while allowing only 7 points from their opponents.

Coach Guggenmos and the eleven seniors, who were the backbone of the team, compiled a 29-5-2 record in their four years together. This included a string of 16 straight victories.

In The Fall

Volleyball became a fall sport in 1971 with games being played on week nights. Most team members felt attendance was lower because of the change, but they still played with spirit and enjoyed a winning season. Janice Papik was named all-conference.

The reserves won all but one of their games, so the future looks bright for the Longhorn volleyball team.

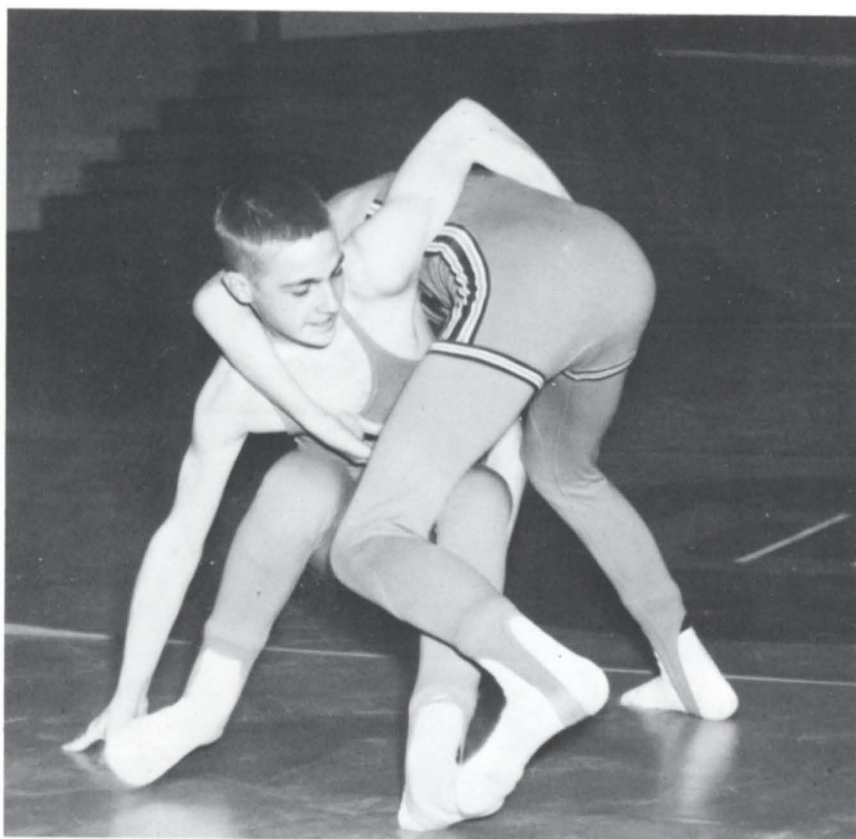

Student managers for the 1971 season were Pat Kalkwarf and Linda Carlson.

The Class of '75 began its high school years with various money-making projects. Class profits came largely from presenting the play, "The Boarding House Reach." The play was directed by Mr. Storms. Sponsoring the freshmen were Mrs. Porter and Mrs. Zoubek.

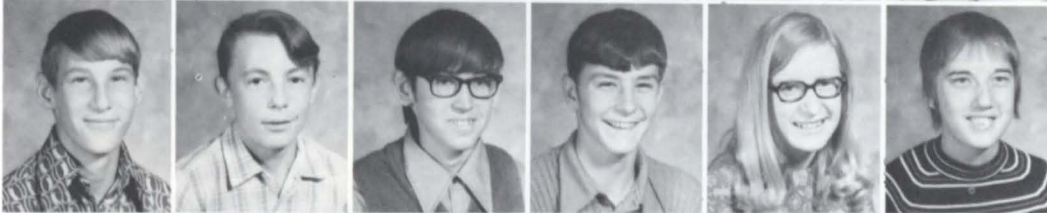

The Class of '74 held many money-making projects this year. Among these were a carnival and soup supper. They ordered their class rings at the end of the year. Mr. Elder and Mr. Storms were their sponsors.

Seniors Cried, "On To Colorado!"

The seniors left on their journey to Colorado Springs Thursday night, May 4. Sponsors for the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Owen and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Elder.

After a few minor problems, they finally reached the Broadmoor Hotel where they were to stay. Time was spent by swimming, horse-back riding, attending movies, bicycling, and going on sightseeing tours.

Sunday morning's departure time came all too soon.

"Finished, Yet Beginning"

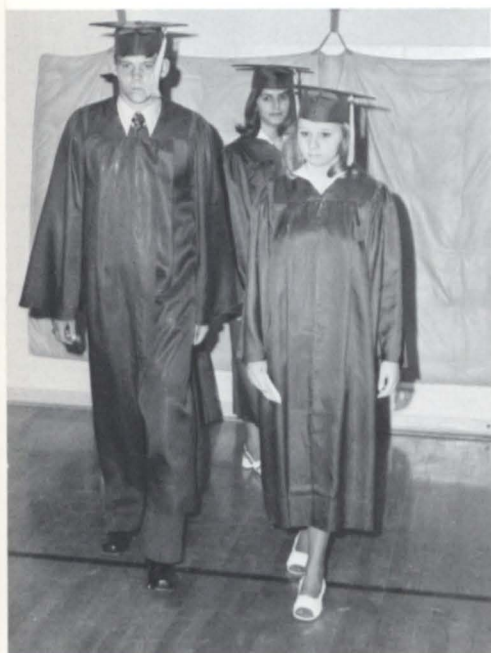

Commencement exercises were held May 15 for twenty-four seniors. Pat Kalkwarf and Marlene Matejka gave the salutatory and valedictory speeches.

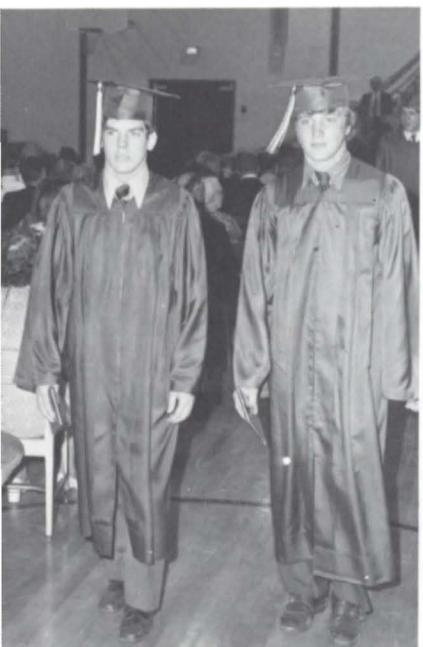

Dr. Philip Heckman, President of Doane College, was the main speaker for the evening.

His address was entitled "A Period or a Comma?"

The processional and recessional were played by the band, and special music was provided by the Swing Choir.

Scholarships were presented by Mr. Johnson.

*Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive him to be,
And whatever your labors and aspirations in the noisy
confusion of life,
Keep peace with your soul.*

With all its sham, drudgery, and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world.

Be careful.

Strive to be happy.
