Darrell Montgomery

The superintendent of any school has many tasks and responsibilities that require his individual attention. Our superintendent isn't any different. Mr. Montgomery is the head of Dorchester Public School and has charge of all administrative transactions. In addition to the superintendency, he finds time to teach eighth grade science and Modern Problems.

SUPERINTENDENT'S ADDRESS

Class of 1964:

As your high school career comes to a close, I am sure you are leaving Dorchester High with mixed emotions. It has been a long thirteen years since you first entered school and I am sure at times you wondered if it was worth it. Now it is over. But really it is just the beginning. I am glad to have been part of this beginning.

I hope the future holds much success and happiness for each of you. But keep in mind that both can only come with hard work. If there is one piece of advice that I can give you as you leave school, it is this: in the final analysis you should not measure your success by what you have accomplished, but by what you should have accomplished with your ability.

Good luck to each of you.

Darrell Montgomery

Robert Miller

Our principal, Mr. Miller, has a very full schedule. Among his usual duties are keeping the attendance records and cumulative records. He has also served as guidance counselor and has done testing throughout the year for guidance purposes. Besides serving as Principal, he taught three social studies classes this year.

PRINCIPAL'S ADDRESS

I would like to extend congratulations to the Senior Class of 1964. You have been a very fine class. I know that all of you are faced with making many decisions in the present and the future. Make your decisions in life intelligently and carefully and I'm sure success in life will be yours. In your continued search for success remember this maxim of Thomas Edison, "Our greatest weakness lies in giving up. The most certain way to succeed is always to try just one more time."

Robert J. Miller

Custodian: Earl Moser

For six years Earl has been janitor at Dorchester Public School. In addition to keeping the school house clean, he has been caretaker of the school grounds. He has been a great help during almost all of the various school projects--banquets, class plays, dances, etc.

Cooks: Louise Moser, Head Cook; Marie Tesar, and Dona Heeren

Louise has been cooking for Dorchester Public School for six years; Marie has been helping for two years; and this is Dona's first year. The cooks have the responsibility of planning school menus, which feature nutritional meals. They are always ready to console teachers with coffee and sympathy.

JOYCE BRUHA

JUDY BRUHA

These twenty-three Seniors of the Class of 1964 have come a long way in their educational-social development. Now the class members of 1964 are faced with vocational, and further educational decisions. Up until this point, we have been dependent upon our parents, teachers, and friends to aid us in meeting our day-by-day problems. We now expect to make our life decisions more maturely and independently.

ROSALEE BURGESS

PAULA FETTE

LORRAINE HARRIS

The Class of 1964 started their Freshman year with twenty-one pupils. Officers elected for that year were: John Howlett, President; Darryl Novak, Vice-President; Joyce Bruha, Secretary; and Dale Leach, News Reporter. Freshman initiation was our first taste of high school activities. It was this year when we started working diligently to earn money for our Senior Trip. We raked leaves, washed cars, and held bake sales.

JOHN HOWLETT

VERNA HUBBARD

DENNIS KALKWARF

We began our Sophomore year with twenty-three students, gaining Paula Fette and Dennis Kalkwarf. Class officers were: Dennis Sysel, President; Michael Nerud, Vice-President; Paula Fette, Secretary-Treasurer, and Jane Kaspar, News Reporter. We were still working for money for that long-awaited Senior Trip. Activities consisted of mostly the same as our Freshman year.

JANE KASPAR

LANA KLEINHOLZ

CAROL KLIMENT

At the beginning of our Junior year, our class attendance changed. We gained Lorraine Harris and Carol Kliment and lost Donald Taylor and Dale Leach. Representing the class as officers that year were: Verna Hubbard, President; Dennis Kalkwarf, Vice-President; Carol Kliment, Secretary-Treasurer; and Joyce Bruha, News Reporter. Many activities filled our third year in high school--performing the Junior class play, decorating for the Jr. Sr. Banquet, publishing the PARROT, attending County Government Day, and numerous other activities.

WAYNE MOSER

MICHAEL NERUD

DARRYL NOVAK

Our class started the Senior year with the same students we had our Junior year. We elected as officers for our final year as following: John Steffensen, President; Wayne Moser, Vice-President; John Howlett, Secretary-Treasurer, and Lorraine Harris, News Reporter. As usual, the Senior year was packed with excitement. We were looking forward to our Senior Trip with the very first week of school. Other activities were the Freshman initiation party, the Senior class play, the Jr. Sr. Banquet, and our last Athletic Banquet during our high school career. Commencement and Baccalaureate closed the year and, along with it, brought memories of past years.

With the help of Mr. Klemme, the Sophomore class was kept busy with projects to raise money. Among the biggest projects were a bake sale, car wash, and the selling of popcorn.

Also, the class has been kept busy with school work, but mixed in with this work are bits of humor and interesting events which will be placed among our most memorable in high school.

History can be fun!

Officers: Cal Larson, News Reporter; Eileen Písar, Secretary-Treasurer; Aris Nohavec, President; and Carol August, Vice-President.

FRESHMEN

Front Row: Jane Duchek, Lyn Mariska, Mary Lou Conkling, Patsy Spacek.

The band started the year by electing officers who are as follows: President, Verna Hubbard; Vice President, Marla Jean Novak; Secretary-Treasurer, John Howlett; News Reporter, John Steffensen; Librarians, Aris Nohovec and Bernice Fink.

The outstanding performance for the band this year was the superior rating at the District I Music Contest held in York. In all, the music department received these ratings: superiors-5; excellents-12; goods-2.

During the year we attended the Cloverleaf Conference Vocal Clinic at Milligan and the Instrumental Clinic at Alexandria. We presented three concerts during the year: the Christmas program, Winter Band Concert, and the Pre-Contest Concert. The band also played for Memorial Day in May.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The Seniors last play "The Greener Grass", was a three-act comedy. It was a story of an ordinary citizen running for public office in a small Mid-western city, and the effect it had on his family and friends. A class play is more than the performers on stage. Many hours are spent erecting stage props, advertising, and make-up. We would like to thank our sponsor, Mr. Montgomery.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"Deadly Ernest", a three-act farce comedy, was presented by the Junior class. The story was centered around a good-natured young man and the life he led in a big city. The experience the Juniors gained this year will be a benefit to them for their Senior class play. Mr. Klemme, sponsor, is to be congratulated for his fine directing.

HOMECOMING

ATHLETIC BANQUET

Royalty: John Steffensen, Verna Hubbard, second attendants; John Howlett, King; Joyce Bruha, Queen; Darryl Novak, Ann Potter, first attendants.

The annual Athletic Banquet was held April 3, 1964, in the Dorchester school auditorium. Pep Club members planned and carried out the theme "Magic Moments" under the guidance of Mrs. Schultz and Miss Drake. After an enjoyable meal served by the American Legion Auxiliary, Mr. Robert Erickson of Doane College presented the speech.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

On May 15, 1964, the Dorchester gym was transformed into a beautiful outdoor garden. Carrying out the theme of "Apple Blossom Time," the Juniors decorated the auditorium for the annual Junior-Senior Banquet. Sophomore servers for the evening meal were: Jayne Siedhoff, Jean Woehrle, Patsy Hostetler, Carol August, Tom Weber, Gary Wittmuss, Ron Schreiber, and Cal Larson. The Senior class will and prophecy were read by members of the Senior class. A dance followed the other entertainment.

With few returning lettermen, the Dorchester Longhorns faced a year of rebuilding. The season that was injury ridden saw the Longhorns win two games and lose six. The highlight of the season was the win over Milligan which tied the two teams for third place Cloverleaf Conference. John Steffensen and Gary August were co-captains for the season. Returning lettermen for next season are: Steve Stutzman, Gene Slama, Jim Clark, Larry Bosak, and Tom Shaw.

Losing by one point to DeWitt, defending Class D champions, was the big disappointment of the year. But the varsity never lost their spirit through the season. The most satisfying game was the victory over Alexandria. With only four seniors departing, the coach can look forward to a fine season next year. The returning lettermen are: Edward Zak, Jim Clark, Gene Slama, and Dale Feeken.

Volleyball Captain - Judy Bruha

The volleyball team had a very successful year. The girls played a total of twenty games--winning fourteen and losing six. Out of the six losses, four came during tournament play and only two came from regular season games. The highlight of the season was the Cloverleaf Tournament when the team played Tobias for the championship and won second place. In March, the girls traveled to the Hastings' Invitational to play in a 32-team tournament and took home the fourth-place trophy. The volleyball season closed when the team traveled to the Wahoo Volleyball Tournament.

The girls would like to thank Mr. Drake for all the long hours he put in helping the team.

SENIOR TRIP

On April 30, 1964, twenty-two Seniors and two sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Drake, departed at 11:30 P.M. for their Senior trip. They were destined for a lake resort in the Ozarks near the scenic Bagnell Dam.

The three days spent there were filled with many activities. Seniors all enjoyed swimming, boat rides, airplane rides, nighttime dancing on a showboat, and viewing the comical Ozark Oprey.

At 9:30 P.M., May 3, the Continental Trailways bus pulled into Dorchester with twenty-four tired but mighty happy people.

ANNUAL STAFF

Mr. Miller, Sponsor; Joyce Bruha, Assistant Editor; John Howlett, Photographer; Verna Hubbard, Editor; Michael Nerud, Business Manager.

The annual staff met the challenge of putting together the 1964 annual with hard work and enthusiasm. The staff this year was composed of sponsor, Mr. Miller, and four seniors.

There were many responsibilities for the staff--getting subscriptions, making copies, taking pictures, and organizing the contents.

The annual staff hopes that the "Longhorn" will be enjoyed by all and will bring back as many pleasant memories for you as it did for us.
